The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday February 28. to Thursday March 3. 1697.

Warsaw, February 18. N. S.

THE Gentlemen of the Rokotz, summoned by the Cardinal Primate to meet at Lowitz, are most of them arrived there, and the Great Marshal of the Crown, the Great Treasurer of Lithuania, and some other Persons of the Chiefest Quality, are gone to assist at this Assembly, the Success whereof will very much contribute to the restablishing of the Publick Peace and Tranquility; and of this they have at this Court so good a prospect, that the King thinks to set out the next week for Prussia, and has already sent part of his Houshold to Dantzick. The Troubles in Lithuania continue to a great height, the Party of Oginski declaring, they will not lay down their Arms till they have such Assurances as may satisfie them, that the Nobility of that Province shall for the future be equal to that of Poland, and enjoy the same Rank and Priviledges: In the mean while they continue to ravage the Estate of the Great General Sapieha, who marches with all the haste he can to the Relief of his Vassals. We hear likewise, that the Under-General of Lithuania, who was sent as his Majesties Commissioner to Negociate an Agreement between the two Differing Parties, has instead of acquitting himself of that Commission, joined with that of Ogimki. The King has ordered the Senate to meet, to consider of the most proper Means to put a stop to these Disorders, as also what Answer to return to some of the Nobility who desire they may have a Dyet on Horseback; and to the Deputies of the Lithuanian Army who press for the Payment of their Arrears. We have received from Rome the welcome News, that the Pope has acknowledged the King of Poland, and is ready to employ his Offices for procuring the Union of this Kingdom, which we hope will not be ineffectual. Our Advices from the Frontiers inform us, that a great Body of Tartars are marched towards Caminiec, with a design to re-victual that place, and then make an Incursion into the Country about Lemberg.

Dantzick, Febr. 22. According to our Letters from Warsaw, the King of Poland would set out on his Journey hither the 26th of this month, and part of his Guards are already arrived. This City has made great Preparations for His Majesties Reception. By the Circular Letters which his Majesty has issued out for the Assembling of the General Dyet on the 16th of April, he has also commanded that the particular ones, which must precede it, shall meet by the 5th of March. We have Letters from Lemberg which say the Tartars have put a Convoy of Provisions into Caminiec.

Vienna, Febr. 22. New Levies are making in the Empire, for recruiting and increasing the number of our Forces; and Orders are given for buying a great many Horses to remount the Cavalry. The Discourse still continues at this Court, that we shall begin the Campagne with the Siege of Belgrade, and it's said the reinforcing of our Fleet on the Danube, (for which purpose several great Vessels are building with all possible diligence) is in order to its making head against that of the Turks, so as to hinder any Succors being brought to that place by Water. Prince Lewis of Baden is expected here in 3 weeks, intending to begin his Journey so soon as the several Places to be restored by France are evacuated, and the German Garisons settled there. It is said the Emperor intends to send a Minister to be present at the Election of a Bishop of Osnabrug, and to support the Interest of the Prince of Lorrain Bishop of Olmutz. The Bishop of Passau is appointed to go Ambassador from this Court to that of Portugal. Our Advices from the Frontiers say, the Turks are at work to put Belgrade and Temiswaer into the best posture of Defence they can, and that a considerable Party of our Men had been sent out of Guadisca to make an Incursion towards Bagnaluca, but were not yet returned.

Osnabrug, Febr. 24. Our Chapter is assembled, in order to fix a day for the Election of a Successor to this Bishoprick, which by the Death of the late Elector of Hanover, comes now to be disposed of, and must this time be given to a Roman Catholick; according to the Treaties of Munster and Osnabrug, by which it is agreed, that the Lutherans and Papists shall have the Right of Chusing by turns. It is said the Chapter desire the Garison may be sent out of the Town before they proceed to the Election, that the same may be the more free. There are several Candidates, among whom are the Bishop of Olmutz, Brother to the present Duke of Lorrain, the Great Master of the Teutonick Order, and the Bishop of Munster; The former of whom it's thought will carry it, being supported by the Emperor; and the two latter seeming inclinable to resign their Interest to him.

Hamburg, March 4. Mr. Stepney, Envoy Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great-Britain to the Elector of Brandenbourg, is arrived at Bremen, and designs to be here to morrow, and spend some days in this City, after which he will pursue his Journey to Berlin. They are preparing Quarters in the Dutchy of Bremen for 2000 Men of the Swedish Forces, who are expected from Flanders. Our Letters from Stockholm say, the Baron Von Heckeren, who has resided there on the part of the States-General, is preparing for his departure homewards.

Paris, March 3. The Earl of Portland's Equipages are this day arrived here; so that it is believed his Excellency will now very suddenly make his publick Entry. Count Tallard, who is appointed to go Ambassador Extraordinary to His Majesty of Great-Britain, designs to leave this place in 2 or 3 days, and to be at Calais the 8th or 9th Instant, in order to embark for England. The Count de Monasterol, Envoy Extraordinary from